

Dr. Glapa is a 1979 graduate of Marquette University School of Dentistry. Following graduation from dental school, Dr. Glapa served for three years in the United States Army Dental Corps in Japan, Korea, and at Fort Carson, Colorado.

Dr. Glapa then attended Marquette University School of Dentistry 1982-1984, specializing in fixed and removable Prosthodontics, receiving his certificate of completion in December of 1984.

Dr. Glapa became Board Certified in the specialty of Prosthodontics in June of 1991 and is presently a Diplomat of the American Board of Prosthodontics and a member of the American College of Prosthodontists.

Dr. Glapa has been in private practice in Appleton, Wisconsin since December of 1984 and is located at W3132 Van Roy Road offering the public over 20 years of experience in the specialty of Prosthodontics.